Office of the Legislative Counsel

Thursday - 5 April 1962

Talked with Bob Smart, House Armed Services Committee staff, concerning the monthly meeting of the CIA Subcommittee of House Armed Services. Mr. Smart indicated that the Chairman and the Committee had been very busy on other matters and stated he thought it highly likely that the Chairman would wish to put over any meeting until after the 1st of May when the Easter recess is over. However, we will keep in touch to learn if this is the firm wish of the Chairman.

7. [redacted] Jay Sourwine telephoned saying that the hearing with [redacted] had gone well and that there were no matters in the hearing which he thought would be of concern to the Agency. At the moment the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee has no plans for publishing this hearing and offered to make a transcript available for our comments. We will pick this up Monday.

9. [redacted] In response to the request of Representative Philip J. Philbin of last Friday that I stop by one day when it was convenient, I had a rather long discussion with Mr. Philbin's administrative assistant, Mr. Gaucher. Mr. Gaucher apologized that the Congressman had returned home on Thursday since the House would not be in session on Friday. He indicated the Congressman was appreciative of the information and material furnished him last week and he would be pleased if I could stop in Monday at my convenience and chat with him further on the subject of applications for employment by constituents. It was agreed that possibly Tuesday or Wednesday of next week would be the best time to catch the Congressman.
